OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

THANKSGIVING DAY IS strictly an American tradition.

Perhaps in this period in our history when dissent and criticism of this country's traditions seems to be so popular in some circles, Thanksgiving Day may have lost its true meaning.

And that's sad.

Even the most cynical should be able to find something for which to be thankful once a year.

For example, just being able to protest and criticize should be considered a blessing. There are some places in this world where that can't be done.

So it shouldn't take much effort to count one's blessings on just one day.

There will be thousands and thousands of American families who will still mark the day, as it has traditionally been marked throughout our history. We are thankful for that.

If that is considered corny by the dissidents, so be it.

Have a good day.

And take time between bites and the football games, to reflect a little and give thanks.

It will do us all some good, even the hippies.

Happy Thanksgiving.

TRADITIONALLY EACH year in the Thanksgiving issue, The Campbell Press presents two features.

One is a message from a local clergyman. The other is the pictorial display of the Campbell High football players who each year meet Los Gatos on the gridiron.

In this issue, the Rev. Keith Loyd presents the Thanksgiving message. The Rev. Loyd, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Campbell, is a newcomer to our community. He came here last month.

We are happy to welcome him and are pleased to present his message.

It makes good reading for all of us.

THAT FOOTBALL spread (on pages 4 and 5) is a Campbell Press tradition that tries to tie in the local business community with the Campbell High varsity football players in a unique manner.

Each of the 40 players is "sponsored" by a local businessman.

To make it more "football-ish", the businessman, in most cases, is pictured in a football helmet.

That may appear to be pure corn to some.

But we have a lot of fun with it and most of the business people seem to enjoy it year after year.

Some local merchants have appeared each year for the past 12 years.

Their pictures have not been changed.

But the helmets certainly have.

When our tradition started, there were no face guards on the helmets.

Most of the old-timers, however, have frowned on going more modern, pictorially speaking.

Those face guards don't do much for a guy anyway, other than hide the face. Maybe that's good.

THIS HAS NOTHING TO do with Thanksgiving, but we felt quite flattered this week when a representative of an aircraft firm in San Jose contacted us, first by letter and then by phone.

He suggested owning our own Cessna plane would be both "fun and rewarding whether you fly for business or pleasure".

He mentioned also that corporate and private flying was increasing.

He asked us to "think about how much could be

Youths to take office

On Monday night (after press time) the City Council was scheduled to appoint this city's first Youth Advisory Commission composed of nine members.

Eight of the nine high school students who have been recommended for appointment qualify as to residential requirements (within the city limits). The Council, however, is being asked to waive the residential requirement in the case of Mary Ann Chalmers, 1239 Shady Dell Ave., a senior at Del Mar High.

Two of the recommended commissioners, Russell Hammer, of 1297 Clover and Karen Crawford, of 1605 Sheffield, both juniors at Del Mar, urged the Council at Monday's meeting to make an exception in the case of Miss Chalmers.

They pointed out that Mary Ann lives in an unincorporated area but actively participated in doing the ground work which ultimately led to the resolution establishing the Youth Advisory Commission. She also served as "city manager" in the recent Student Government Day.

Hammer and Miss Crawford did not suggest that the resolution be changed but that an exception be made in Miss Chalmers' case for this one time only.

Indications were that the City Council would go along with the recommendation.

However, if the exception is not allowed, the selection committee, composed of Councilman Ralph Doetsch, Hammer and Miss Crawford, had asked that Ron Brooks, 1101 Monica Lane, also a Del Mar junior, be appointed the ninth member and Miss Chalmers named as an ex-officio member. Brooks would be recommended for ex-officio membership if Mary Ann was named a full-fledged commissioner.

The second ex-officio member would be Linda Adams, 1433 McBain, a senior at Del Mar.

In addition to Hammer and Miss Crawford, the other recommendations for members of the first Youth Advisory Commission were:

Terry Bullian, 64 N. Llewellyn, a junior at Campbell High.

Bill McCall, 299 Carlyn, a senior at Campbell High.

Up before the City Council on Monday also was the appeal of Anthony C. Morici, developer of the former Gomes Ranch. Morici has taken exception to a Planning Commission ruling which specified that the service station on the development must be of a "reverse design" and that no building permit could be issued for the station until 50% of the commercial center was under construction.

EARLY ISSUE

The Campbell Press, as has been the case at every Thanksgiving time, is being delivered two days early this week.

The office will be closed all day Wednesday, Nov. 26 and, of course, on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27.

It will be open for business again on Friday, Nov. 28.

Both news and advertising deadlines were shoved ahead.

And...a Happy Thanksgiving to you, too.

THANKSGIVING ART--Thanksgiving traditionally means remembering the American heritage of Pilgrims observing the first feast day after sailing to the shores of the new country in the Mayflower and finding wild turkeys to round out their food stores. Above, the children at Castlemont School show the various forms of art, which incorporated with their history lessons, help to bring the first Thanksgiving closer to home. Glenn Floyd, fourth grade student, holds two turkeys on the left with Christie Bourman, fourth grade, with one of the clever Pilgrim girl heads. Lisa Minor, third grade, holds a picture of the Mayflower and another form of turkey while Tracy McBride, third grader, shows off two turkeys.

Campbell to go for 'All-America'

Campbell Chamber of Commerce, under the chairmanship of Norm Paul, second vice-president, will sponsor the City of Campbell in the 1970 All American City contest, according to Neal Royer, president of the CofC.

In a letter to the City Manager Bob Stephens this week, Royer indicated that the CofC directors felt that this city was qualified by its achievements in recent years to enter the national contest sponsored by Look Magazine and the National Municipal League.

Paul, co-owner of the two Plaza Theaters in Campbell with a public relations background, has the necessary background training, Royer pointed out, to bring about success for the city in its efforts.

"It is our feeling that 1970 is the year of opportunity for our city, and we are ready to move with you and the City on this project," Royer concluded in his letter.

Members ballot for eight new CofC directers

Ballots in the annual election for directors of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce must be returned to the CofC office by this Friday, Nov. 28, according to Neal Royer, CofC prexy.

There are 15 candidates for the eight positions that are on the board. Members can also write-in names of other candidates.

Those nominated include: Myron Alexander, realtor, 393 E. Hamilton Ave.; Joe Cuffaro, Walker Paint Co., 1777 Winchester Blvd.; Bill Deal, West Valley College; John Dixon, Farley Insurance Co., 365 E. Campbell Ave.; Ed Fabbri, Bank of America, Campbell Ave.

John Hughes, D.D.S., 621 E. Campbell Ave.; Yas Kato, real estate and development, 1777 Saratoga Ave.; Daniel Knowles, General Business Service, 1422 Dentwood Dr., San Jose.

Edward Meszaros, DeLuxe Check Printers, 1551 Dell Ave.; Jack Reilly, Red Carpet Advertising, 3859 Via Milano; James W. Schafer, Colonial Savings, 1510 S. Winchester Blvd.; Tom State, First National Bank, 2395 Winchester Blvd.

Dean Vesling, IBM Corp., 250 Hacienda; Holly Vollenweider, realtor, 2050 S. Bascom; Clair Wilson, realtor, 1860 S. Bascom.

RESIGNS--William A. Parton, of 1380 Ridgeley Dr., Campbell, due to press of personal business, has resigned (effective Nov. 13) as a member of the board of trustees of the Campbell Union (elementary) School District. Parton, who has served as both president and clerk of the board, has been a trustee since 1964.

A new state law, effective Nov. 10, now makes it mandatory that a vacancy on a school board must be filled by an election. In previous years such vacancies were filled by appointment. An election, under the law, must be called in 120 days (by mid-March).

Churches hold Thanksgiving Day services

Thanksgiving Day will be observed in the Campbell churches with special services scheduled for Wednesday evening and on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

At the Saratoga Avenue Baptist Church a combined service with the Campbell Baptist Church will be held Thanksgiving Day at 10 a.m. at which time Dr. Earl Radmacher, president of Western Conservative Baptist Seminary, Portland, Oregon, will bring a sermon entitled "The Sacrifice of Praise". The combined choirs will sing as well as an all girl's high school choir from the Campbell Baptist Church, and Don Ward will speak on "I am The Nation".

West Valley College board to set new date for district bond vote

There will be no bond election for the West Valley Joint Junior College District (Campbell, Los Gatos-Saratoga and Santa Clara high school districts) on February 17 the college board ruled last Thursday.

But there still must be a bond election early in 1970 for the junior college district which will be the fourth that has faced the electors in the district in its six years of existence.

All three previous bond issues failed to pass.

College board members last Thursday rescinded the Feb. 17 date because of the conflict with an election set by the Campbell Union High School District. The election is necessary for the high school district to authorize an increase in the district's tax rate.

College board members indicated also that a delay in the bond election would enable a possible joint election with the San Jose Junior College.

At the last meeting board chairman Edward Panelli had indicated such an election might be considered "county-wide junior college day". Thursday night Panelli appointed fellow board members Mrs. Mildred Wharton and William Homan as a committee to meet with San Jose City College officials and to bring back a report, if possible, at the board's Dec. 4 meeting on a possible election date.

In a related matter Thursday night, board members delayed action on a proposal concerning purchase of land for the Mission College site in Santa Clara.

San Jose attorney Arthur Lund, representing the Presley Development Co. of southern California, told board members his company had options to buy 80 acres of land the college currently had under consideration for the Mission College site. The company wants to develop the area for a planned community.

Lund told board members the Presley Company would buy approximately 154 acres of land directly across from the site now under consideration (located on the west side of Coffin Road, north of the Bayshore Freeway in Santa Clara), hold it for the school and later sell it to the school at cost to the company plus the costs of holding it.

A THANKSGIVING MESSAGE

REV. KEITH LOYD

This year the Rev. Keith Loyd, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Campbell (400 Llewellyn Ave.), presents the traditional Thanksgiving message for The Campbell Press.

This marks the first Thanksgiving that the Rev. Loyd has been in Campbell, as he became pastor of the local church in October of this year, succeeding the Rev. Harry M. Liechty.

The Rev. Loyd came to the Campbell church from the Immanuel Baptist Church of Santa Rosa where he had served as minister since 1962. He received his education at Wayland Baptist College and the Golden Gate Seminary.

He and his wife, Martha, have four children. Their oldest son, Randy, 18, is attending Wayland College in Plainview, Texas. Their other children are Keith, Terry and Janis.

THANKSGIVING, A LOST ART

Americans have dropped God like a hot potato!

God gets in the way! God demands too much of our time! God embarrasses us! The public schools, which began in a church, have been declared "off limits" to God. A young Christian, in a nearby high school, was reprimanded by his school principal for telling his friends about God. Fortunately, a school board wisely took the side of the young student.

The fundamental church has been accused of living in the past. And this charge may be partially true. But there is validity in searching history for the benefit of example. Thus learning the mistakes of past generations, we learn to avoid the same mistakes for our own generation.

This being the case, [illegible] can't help fearing for the great nation of the United States of America if the present trend away from God continues. One needs but to read the history of Israel to learn how the people forsook God when they had plenty of food for their stomachs and land for their plow, or pastures for their animals. They became self-sufficient, and believed they had risen to great heights because of their own abilities.

World War I was supposed to be the "war to end all wars". At the close of that war history records the fact that people had little use for God. They had learned how to live in peace. Great advancements had been made in technology. We had the gasoline engine, and prosperity became the order of the day. But it wasn't much more than ten years under such conditions that the great depression came in 1929. People and animals were starving. Homes were being lost. Farms that once produced fine crops became barren in the great dust storms and drought. The government, under great strain already, had to come to the aid of starving people everywhere. And somehow, slowly but surely, we began to make our way back. Irrigated farms produced. Gardens were planted, and animals gave their milk while hens laid eggs, and the farm people, long the backbone of our nation, fed us and nourished us back to health.

But one strange thing had taken place in the meantime, which would almost escape the vision of the reader of history today. It was the fact that thousands and thousands of people in this land had begun to pray again, and worship God! A miracle which was overlooked by many at the time, and still is overlooked today, but which nevertheless happened, restored our land!

> "If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will heal their land. Now mine eyes shall be open and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place."

Our nation is standing on the threshold of tomorrow. If God's people will humble themselves. and stop thinking of themselves more highly than they ought to think, God will still answer their prayers. And this is what Thanksgiving is really all about; it takes a bit of humility on our part to realize that God is the giver of all good gifts.

May we return this Thanksgiving season, to the wisdom of our forefathers. May the historians who write of us in the future, note the return of Christian people everywhere to their God in 1969! Let us fall before Him, humble ourselves, pray and seek his face as we turn from our selfishness. Then by His power and mercy, may we see America delivered into the brightness of a new tomorrow!!! Give thanks, all America! Come before His presence with thanksgiving.

"All hail the power of Jesus' Name,
Let angels prostrate fall.
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all!!!"

Father Lally leaves

It is with sincere regret that we note the transfer of Father John M. Lally, for almost 10 years pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic Church in Campbell, to San Mateo.

In the 10 years that Father Lally has served as pastor of St. Lucy's the parish has made giant strides, including the construction of one of the finest church edifices in the area.

That church, of course, will remain, from now on, a monument, in a sense, to Father Lally, as sort of tangible evidence of material achievement during his tenure in Campbell.

But Father Lally leaves more than a church building as a "monument", if you will, in Campbell.

He leaves countless friends in this community, both Catholic and non-Catholic.

He leaves parishioners who were devoted to him and were inspired by his spiritual leadership and understanding.

He leaves a community in which he took great pride recognizing fully that his parish had a major role to play in it.

And he leaves a community weekly newspaper editor and publisher who considered Father Lally not only a sincere and dedicated man of God but also his genuine friend.

This community will miss Father Lally.

LIKES COLUMN

Dear Mr. Vierhus:

Your column interests me as I wrote a shorter column some years ago for a weekly. I wonder how many people realize just what goes into writing a column if only once a week.

By way of introduction my wife and I are VISTA VOLUNTEERS attached to the West Valley Senior Action Center here in Campbell, and we are Seniors, too. First we should like to say how much we like your city..we have found the people here as friendly and dependable as the California weather. Never have we gone from the first part of June until now and seen so much sunshine.

Our home is in Oneonta, N. Y., a small Upstate College Town in the Empire State and we shall be serving here at the Senior Center until June 1970. We have met Mayor Homer Hyde, City Attorney Bonacina and very briefly Police Chief Morgan and City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan. All have reflected the same Campbell personality and we feel sure that your City merits a First City Award.

High School Principal Rich and Student Body President Royer sent our Senior Citizens courtesy cards for athletic home games and other activities. We have made good use of them during the football season and what we have seen in football and half-time activities should make anyone who lives in Campbell very proud of Campbell High.

From everyone we have met we have enjoyed so much that is good that we have to say something about it. Now we have said it and we wish you and yours the best of everything as you go "Out On The Limb" in the weeks ahead.

Sincerely,
Ken and Mabel MacEwen

Really we wouldn't mind owning our own Cessna.

But we doubt seriously that The Campbell Press is quite ready for it.

We haven't paid for the last typewriter, yet.

IT IS NOT UNUSUAL FOR people to forget the name of individuals they are about to introduce.

That happens frequently.

But hardly would we expect one to forget his own name.

The sergeant had been making a series of calls from his office, using the same basic format on all calls, i.e., calling the party on the other end of the line by name and then introducing himself.

On one call, after mentioning the guy's name, the sergeant drew a blank.

"I know who you are," he allegedly said into the phone, "but who am I?"

Fortunately the lapse was only for a second.

You can check with Captain Don Burr on the authenticity of that report.

UNDER THE SPONSORship of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, the City of Campbell is going to enter the "All American City" contest.

Norm Paul has been named chairman of the program.

To be designated an "All American City" is an honor that is recognized throughout the country and a city that is thus named proudly advertises the fact.

The awards are made annually by Look Magazine and the National Municipal League and give national recognition to citizens whose teamwork and initiative have solved serious community problems.

Campbell appears to be qualified because of the achievements made in recent years by citizen participation in civic problems.

We are pleased that the CofC is going to sponsor the program.

INCIDENTALLY, BACK in 1967, the idea of Campbell becoming an "All American City" was first suggested.

In a CofC bulletin of April, 1967, (Jim Duffield was manager of the Chamber then), the idea of getting national recognition for Campbell by the "All American" route was suggested.

According to the bulletin, someone in Washington had suggested the idea to Jim after the official had perused the 1967 Progress Edition of The Campbell Press and the report on the first Congress of Community Progress.

The bulletin reported that the guy in Washington said: "Jim, you folks have a city in the making for the award of the All American City in 1969".

Jim added this note in the bulletin to the members: "I think he has something. Do you?"

Thus, if we had something going for us in 1967, we certainly should be more today, two years later.

By the way, how come we had a 1967 CofC bulletin on hand?

Let's see, now who was was president of that august body that year?

STEVE GOODMAN, long-time engineer and manager of Sanitation District No. 4, has reported to us that the recent University of Pacific-Santa Clara University football battle was sort of a sticky situation in their home.

You see, Steve and his wife, Jean, are both graduates of the University of Pacific.

Their two oldest sons are now attending Santa Clara University. The sons got the tickets for their mom and dad.

We think there was some sort of understanding about rooting.

By the way, we should throw this in about the Goodman boys. There are four of 'em.

The youngest now carries The Campbell Press route in their neighborhood.

It's the same route his three brothers had previously.

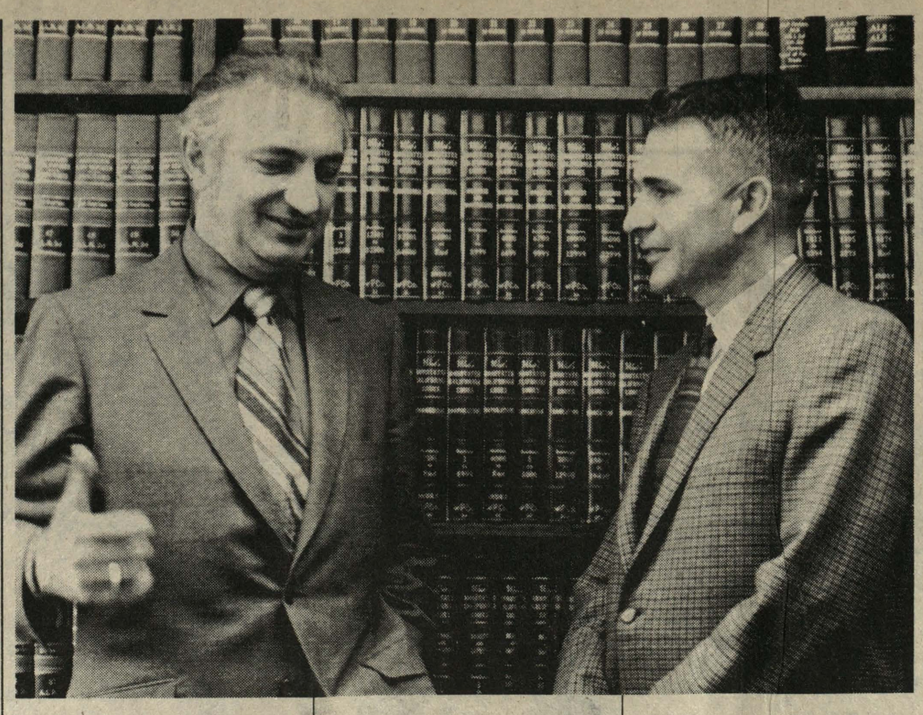
BALLOTS FOR THE election of the new Chamber of Commerce directors are to be returned to the CofC office by Friday, Nov. 28.

We thought we had been careless and had lost the self-addressed envelope that supposedly came with our ballot.

But we guess everyone was in the same ballot boat.



SAVE THE BAY---Sen. Nicholas C. Petris (D-Alameda) discusses his recent Save the Bay bill with Richard Hayden, division chairman of social sciences at West Valley College. Petris will be the first of four speakers at the college in a forum on conservation entitled "Destruction or Survival - Your Choice". The forum will begin Nov. 26 at 8 p.m. and will be offered on four consecutive Wednesday evenings. Interested participants must register for the course at the Office of Community Services, located at 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, room L-26. Applications will be processed on a first come - first served basis.

WVC may offer Portuguese

A conversational Portuguese course at West Valley is now under consideration. If enough participants express an interest the course will begin soon and will be taught by Edward Kursar, language instructor at the college.

It will be a non-graded, non-credit course given approximately once a week.

Those interested in the course should contact the Office of Community Services, located at 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, room L-26. Information may be obtained by calling that office at 379-1733, ext. 58.

WVC enrollment keeps going up

Enrollment continued to soar during the first weeks of school at West Valley College. Figures taken after the first four weeks of school showed 5335 enrolled for day time classes. This is an increase of more than 1000 from last year's fall enrollment.

The number of first time freshmen attending the college naturally increased as did the number of total freshmen and sophomore students enrolled.

This year 2334 first-time freshmen walked onto West Valley's campus on Sept. 10. Last year only 1877 first-time freshmen were enrolled.

Los Gatos High School contributed the most new incoming students to West Valley with a total of 168. However, Leigh High School, Santa Clara High, Campbell Union and Blackford were not far behind. This is in contrast to 1968 when Westmont High had 156 graduates enroll at West Valley.

Other enrollment figures this fall showed that 164 students transferred to West Valley from other junior colleges in the state, while 95 students came to West Valley from the campuses of the 18 state colleges and the 10 campuses of the university.

Ninety students from most of the 50 states and the Panama Canal Zone are also attending West Valley.

Drama takes place Dec. 4 at WV College

The Playhouse theater group of San Francisco will present Edgar Lee Masters' moving production of "Spoon River Anthology" Dec. 4 at West Valley College.

The play provides a guided tour through the private lives of the residents of a small Illinois town. The setting is the town graveyard where the village dead come back to life to read their own epitaphs.

For the past 17 years The Playhouse has been a leading creative force in San Francisco resident theater, producing nearly 100 avant-garde, original, modern and classical plays. Theatre of the Absurd was first introduced to San Francisco audiences in 1957 through The Playhouse production of Eugene Ionesco's "The Bald Soprano" and many local playwrights have been produced, including several plays and films of James Broughton.

Campbell High meets Los Gatos on Thanksgiving for 36th time

Los Gatos High School has wrapped up the championship of the West Valley League, so on Thanksgiving Day when Los Gatos and Campbell tangle for the 36th time there will be nothing at stake except tradition. But that's a lot in any "big game".

The series began in 1934 and over the years Los Gatos has come out on top 20 times, while Campbell has been the winner on 14 occasions. There has been one tie (1943) in the series.

Last year Campbell won the league championship and had only one tie to mark a perfect record for the season. The Bucs were rated as one of the top teams in the Central Coast area.

But that was last year.

The Wildcats go into the game on their home field at 11 a.m. Thanksgiving Day sporting an unblemished league record while Campbell is 5-3 in league play, good for third place in league standings.

Campbell lost to Leigh 32-0 last Friday while Los Gatos was taking care of Del Mar 35-7. Leigh with a 6-1-1 record holds second place in the league and plays Westmont on Thanksgiving Day. Westmont has not won a league game, losing to Branham 45-14 last Friday.

Branham and Prospect battle on Turkey Day. Branham has a 4-4 record the same as Prospect. Saratoga took Prospect 24-14 last Friday.

On Thanksgiving Day, Saratoga and Blackford play. Saratoga now has a 5-2-1 league record while Blackford is 4-4.

In the second oldest Thanksgiving Day classic, Camden and Del Mar tangle. Camden lost to Blackford last Friday 26-19 and has a 2-6 league record while Del Mar is only 1-7.

Over the years

Campbell and Los Gatos high schools have battled on the gridiron since 1943. Los Gatos holds the edge in total wins with 20 while Campbell has won 14.

There has been one tie (0 to 0 in 1943) in the series during the 34 years.

The complete record year by year:

A national concern recalled 300 pins because they were decorated with jequirity beans, which are poisonous if eaten. A jequirity bean is the seed of Indian licorice, which is used in tropical countries for beads in rosaries and necklaces.

Senior girls reign as queens

Homecoming queens will reign over the many football games to be held in the Campbell High School District on Thanksgiving Day.

As part of the half time activities at the game, the Homecoming Queen will be crowned and her two princesses selected. In many schools the selection of the Queen will not be announced until just before the crown is placed on the girl elected to reign as Homecoming Queen.

All girls are seniors and are active in extra curricular activities at the schools. The varsity football teams select the queen candidates with the entire student body electing the queen and two runner-ups.

All schools are competing in football games, the bands will play and at the conclusion the high school football season will be over for another year. All games start at 11 a.m.

Wide-eyed in Washington

Please Don't Forget Your Spending Money
by Mason Sacks

One of the innumerable tasks that our federal government concerns itself with is the handling of foreign tourists. I was impressed to see just how extensive this concern actually is.

Sam L. Yates, Jr. is the Director of the Office of International Visitor Programs, a division of the State Department. I recently had the opportunity to speak with him about the functions of his organization.

"It's our job," Mr. Yates told me, "to insure as smooth a stay as possible for, if you'll pardon the expression, the foreign 'elite' who visit our country."

"What," I asked, "determines whether or not a person is elite?"

"It varies, of course," he replied, "but, in general, what we're talking about are past and present heads of state, possible future leaders, and other well-known personalities, such as artists or writers. We see that these visitors have good places to stay, accurate travel arrangements, and, if they wish, high quality entertainment. Sometimes, if a person is important enough, we pay all of their expenses."

Apparently, if you're a bigwhig from some foreign country, there's a pretty good deal waiting for you here. I wondered, however, about the relatively unimportant visitor, the little guy who just wants to see our country and have a good time. Does anybody care about him?

John Will, one of the Directors of the U.S. Department of Commerce, told me that someone does indeed care about the "little fellow" from abroad.

"The United States Travel Service," said Will, "is a division of the Department of Commerce. This organization does as much as it can to encourage mass travel to the U.S. and to see that tourists, be they important or completely unknown, are made as comfortable as possible."

It was pleasing to learn that someone cared about the little guy. I wondered, though, why this effort is made. It's obvious why we would want to impress important foreigners but as for the others, well.. it's not so obvious. I asked Mr. Will about it.

"We solicit tourists for two reasons," Will told me. "First, we'd like to give as many people as possible the chance to see the American way of life. Secondly, we want to help solve the balance-of-payments problem by bringing more money back into the country."

The moral of the story is that anyone is welcome to visit the United States, but if you're not overly important, please don't forget your spending money.

Campbell Corners

By Cindy Harris

In my article this week I would like to present something a little different. At last Friday's football game against Leigh, I talked to quite a few parents, friends and relatives who faithfully show up to watch our games, win or lose.

I thought they should receive a little publicity for their loyalty, so this article will let you know who that "silent minority" is, and who some of those familiar faces are that we see every week.

Our biggest fan has got to be Mr. Bob Burton who hasn't missed a game in ten years. Mr. Burton's son, Bob Burton, graduated from Campbell in 1964.

Mr. Frank Arnado and Mr. Frank Barton have been to every game together this year but their story has a little more to it than that. Their son and daughter met at Campbell and are now married and living back east, so the in-laws come to keep an eye on things and to report back to their son and daughter.

Mr. Vic DiFebbo lives in the neighborhood and even though he has no kids directly involved, he turns out to support our boys.

Another familiar face to me was Mr. Adrian Cibilich, who was my principal from kindergarten through the sixth grade. He said he came to see all his "Rosemary kids".

The rest of these names should be familiar to a lot of you but just in case you've forgotten who they belong to, I'll leave a reminder.

Sitting in the stands I found Mr. and Mrs. Ellis (Sandy, pirette), Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powers (Mike and Pat, both in the band), Bill Squires (neighbor to the Powers), Mr. Mike Fujishin (Diane, song girl), Mr. Hawthorne (Brenda, senior), Mr. Jack Chrestman (comes out to watch Joe Alvarez), Mrs. Silberbauer (Rudy, varsity man).

Mrs. Gaddis (Jim, student council secretary), Mrs. Wood (Ron, center on varsity team), Mrs. Mestice (Paul, freshman), Mrs. D. Fonelli (Ron Wood's grandmother), Mr. and Mrs. Alvarez (Joe, varsity quarterback), Mrs. Cannady (Steve), Mrs. Amon (Tom, tackle and defensive and on varsity squad).

Mr. A. B. Batchelor (Angela, freshman), Mr. and Mrs. Pigg (Bill, senior; Jeff, sophomore), Hank Brown (comes to see Greg Gundy), Mr. Wenger (to see Joe Alvarez), Mr. Walden (Dennis, frosh-soph squad), Mr. and Mrs. McLain (Dave, defensive halfback).

Mrs. Lobue (Sam, defensive halfback), Mrs. Gundy (Greg, defensive halfback; Brian, senior), Mrs. Biagini (Vicki, freshman), and Mrs. Silva (Bruce).

Ooops! I forgot one other important person. She is Mrs. Matthews, who belongs to none other than our varsity leader, Coach Matthews.

Thank you all for your continuing support throughout the season.

Congratulations!

A pleasant association

The difference among S & L's is the service they offer. Everything else is much the same. Colonial has a heritage of service. Our name is a reminder of the days when there were town halls and villages... and you did business with people you knew and trusted. All Colonial offices are dedicated to their communities. Most have been a part of their towns and neighborhoods for many years so the people they serve are friends, not customers...and never numbers. Colonial, you see, believes that there is at least one thing more important than the fact it pays the highest interest on insured savings paid day-in to day-out. And that's upholding its reputation for being a pleasant association.

JUVENILE BOOK REVIEWS

THE WORLD OF THE GRIZZLIES, by Beth Day. (J 599.7444)

When Jim and Laurette Stanton decided in 1919 to leave civilized Seattle and settle in the wilderness of British Columbia, they began a life which constantly tested their courage, endurance and skill. Living for over three decades in this last home of the grizzlies, Jim Stanton became one of the foremost authorities on these giants of the wild. This is a true story filled with adventure, humor and the compassion of "two crazy people" for all living things.
